2018

“The course provided many resources that we, as professionals, can utilize in our daily business. Learning about the infrastructure of our cities really helped me view things from the inside out rather than what I’ve become complacent to. I aspire to maintain balance in my life while serving as a leader, mother, and altruistic community member.”

*Natalie Austin
Manager, Tri-City Property Management
Bell County*

2018

“My mission is to contribute insight at the local and regional level of government by pursuing relevant leadership opportunities. I understand the value of community development, economic growth and social services. Leadership Central Texas has inspired me to consider all parties in planning to achieve goals and sustainability.”

*Michael Boyd
Field Representative, US Census Bureau
Bell County*

2018

“Be the drive for not only for your greatness, but the achievement of greatness in others.

Leadership is no longer a thought or a want for me. It is now an action. The leadership academy not only gave me the confidence in understanding the infrastructure of our community but the multitude of resources that are available to us.”

*Amy Garza
Specialist, Texas Health and Human Services
Milam County*

2018

“My mission of leadership is to live a life of integrity and accountability, applying my God given talents and gifts while helping others find their life purpose and live out their passions.”

*Terry Mustapher
President, Bring Everyone in the Zone
Bell County*

2018

“I will strive to encourage deeper community connections for our veterans; it is my goal to be of service and assist our veterans to deploy their skills and experience against community issues, so that their work will contribute to the growth of strong, healthy and sustainable communities.”

*Anthony Martínez
Founder, American Veterans Mission
Bell County*

2018

“My personal mission statement is to live, enjoy, and serve in the community in which I manage and continue a career working in municipal or state government. Leadership Central Texas has allowed me to network and collaborate with other community leaders that have common interests and goals.”

*Rhett Parker
City Manager, City of Cameron
Milam County*

2018

“The valuable information I acquired by participating in Leadership Central Texas provided me with ways to further develop my leadership skills, better serve my community and share with fellow citizens within our region.”

*Sydnee Steelman
